

25X1A
SUBJECT: Functions [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

25X1A6a

25X1A With respect to [REDACTED] and to other areas of operational interest to U.S. Intelligence organizations in [REDACTED] the functions of the [REDACTED] are as follows: 25X1A6a

1. To provide substantive support and guidance for operations.
 - A. It will advise the Chief of Mission and will provide substantive intelligence guidance to operations branches and bases 25X1A6a of the [REDACTED] Mission.
 - B. It will provide similar service to intelligence collection organizations, not subordinate to CIA, when practicable.
2. To act as a centralized field evaluating and reporting division.
 - A. It will provide CIA, the State Department, and other Washington Agencies with evaluated intelligence reports, studies, and estimates as necessary.
 - B. It will furnish the [REDACTED] 25X1A the U.S. Ambassador to [REDACTED] 25X1A6a the Chief of Mission, and other senior U.S. officials evaluated non-Military intelligence.
3. To represent the Chief of Mission on certain joint committees.
4. To disseminate intelligence in the following forms:
 - A. Daily oral briefings to inform the Chief of Mission of important developments within the area of responsibility of 25X1A [REDACTED]
 - B. Weekly sitrep to provide Washington offices with evaluated intelligence expressing the views of the [REDACTED] on 25X1A6a

MAY 27 1952
PR 4

-2-

25X1A6a

current developments in [REDACTED] Poland, Czechoslovakia, and, where possible, the USSR. This sitrep is also disseminated to all [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

C. Weekly Intelligence Bulletin to provide officials of the U.S.

25X1A [REDACTED] and the [REDACTED] with signifi- 25X1A6a cant intelligence on the Soviet Union and its orbit. The

Weekly Intelligence Bulletin is also disseminated to all [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

25X1A6a [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

25X1A6a D. [REDACTED] Handbook series to provide Washington offices, all [REDACTED] bases, and interested [REDACTED] 25X1X4

25X1A6a in [REDACTED] with detailed information necessary for the fulfillment of their duties.

25X1X4 E. [REDACTED] disseminated to U.S. intelligence agencies in Washington and to [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

F. Contribution to the monthly indication of hostilities report.

G. Other reports, memoranda, cables, etc., as necessary.